

VANNIE MOUNIER - April 19, 1920 – December 18, 2018

“Poo poo pe do!” This was the hallmark cry of Vannie “Mummum” Mounier, a vibrant and spirited wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother who passed away on December 18, 2018 in Los Angeles. At 98 years old, she was still a force to be reckoned with and the life of the party. Her infectious smile, laugh, cheers and extremely extroverted personality could charm even the grumpiest person.

Married for 56 years to her Honey Bunch John “Big Pop” Mounier, who passed away in 2001, Mummum built an empire of love for her sons, John and Chris; grandchildren John, Carrie, Genny, Natalie, Matt and Beth; and great grandchildren Camille, Colton, Caydence, Charlie and Evie.

Mummum devoted her life to her children and grandchildren. Over the past several decades, she was a fixture in the stands for hundreds of basketball and football games, dance performances and track meets. Can't find her? Just look for the woman cheering her heart out.

Always sharing wise advice with her family, Mummum often said, “You make your own happiness,” and “You will never be lonely if you have a book.”

Born in Los Angeles to Rafael Condé-Barragan and Carmen Yslas on April 19, 1920, Mummum graduated from Immaculate Heart High School and attended Immaculate Heart College but withdrew from college at the start of World War II.

Compassionate and passionate, Mummum threw herself into volunteering during WWII and continued her philanthropic efforts throughout her life, volunteering for schools, universities and projects supporting the military. She was a natural leader and held leadership positions for the PTA, school board, the district, and for Loyola Marymount University.

Mummum was proud of her work as a buyer for the children's division of a department store in the early 1940s, where she met her husband John, who was an assistant manager at the same department store. The two courted for a year, were married and started a family quickly thereafter. They had a very loving marriage, and 17 years after his passing, are reunited once again. Mummum missed him constantly and talked about him daily.

Mummum – you are so loved by so many. To say that we miss you is an extreme understatement. Through the years you've made such an impact on everyone who crossed your path – kids, grandkids, great grandkids, our friends and countless others. We feel so very lucky.

The family wishes to extend their gratitude to Silverado Hospital, Comfort Keeper Caregivers, Father McNamara, and the many people who have extended love and comfort to Mummum and made her life full and blessed.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to St Vincent's Meals on Wheels Los Angeles, 2303 Miramar St, Los Angeles, CA 90057.

Mass and celebration of the life for Vannie Mounier will be held at St. Bernadine of Siena Parish in Woodland Hills on Saturday, January 5, 2019 at 11 a.m. Reception will be held at the church hall immediately following Mass.
