

Obituary

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Linda Deanne Conde Leppert, who passed away peacefully on February 9, 2025, at the age of 75. Linda was born on August 29, 1949, to Ralph Joseph Conde and Dorothy Margaret Rasch Conde and was raised alongside her beloved brother, Ralph Joseph Conde Jr.

On October 29, 1977, Linda married the love of her life, Robert Noll Leppert, with whom she built a beautiful life filled with love, laughter, and cherished memories. Together, they raised two daughters, Dawn Michelle Olivera and Shawna Nicole Leppert, who were the pride and joy of her life. Linda's love extended to her four adored grandchildren, Remington Crisantos Olivera, Scarlett Rae Olivera, River Vincent Olivera, and Levi Joseph Leppert, who brought her immense happiness and fulfillment.

Linda was a successful realtor for many years, helping countless families find their perfect homes. In her retirement, she found a new passion working for Amazon, where she thrived among a close-knit community of friends and colleagues who admired her dedication and warm spirit.

In her younger years, Linda was an avid snow skier, embracing the thrill of the slopes. She had a deep love for Christmas, spending countless hours creating beautiful decorations and crafts, which she generously gifted to family and friends. These treasured keepsakes will continue to bring joy and serve as reminders of her love for the holiday season. Linda also enjoyed wine tasting, listening to the Beatles, and, most of all, spending time with her family, making lasting memories with those she held dear.

Linda's kindness, creativity, and love will be profoundly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her. While her presence will be deeply missed, her legacy of love and generosity will live on in the hearts of her family and friends.

"And when the night is cloudy, there is still a light that shines on me, shine until tomorrow, let it be."
